

Everybody Wins! DC Featured in Washington Wizards “Standing Tall for Literacy in DC Schools” Campaign

On Wednesday, October 29, 2008, Everybody Wins! DC was featured by the Washington Wizards through their innovative Wizards Care initiative in the “Standing Tall for Literacy in DC Schools” Campaign. The campaign provided exposure to Everybody Wins! DC in the Washington Post and on Washington METRO billboards.

Wizards Care is the Washington Wizards community service program. The entire team from owners Irene and Abe Pollin to players, coaches and employees are committed to investing time and resources within the community. Everybody Wins! DC can attest to the overwhelming impact and commitment of Wizards Care. Over the past ten years the Washington Wizards family has provided more than twenty volunteers annually to participate as volunteer Reading Mentors in Everybody Wins !DC’s Power Lunch Program at Walker Jones Elementary. These volunteers spend an hour each week reading, mentoring and sharing their passion for learning with underserved students one-on-one throughout the school year. The magic produced by these special relationships has improved academic achievement and enhanced students self-esteem.

Reading Mentors from companies, law firms, government agencies, non-profits and foundations share the same commitment as the Washington Wizards and enable Everybody Wins! DC to provide this innovative program at Title I (low-income) public elementary schools in the Washington Metropolitan Area. To learn how your company or organization can become a Power Lunch Partner please contact Vinny Hughes, Operations Manager, at 202.347.9467 ext 17 or vhughes@everybodywinsdc.org.

Standing tall for literacy in DC's schools

READ TO ACHIEVE & EVERYBODY WINS

are two programs that promote a love for learning and reading. As part of Wizards Care, players and staff are taking literacy to new heights among DC's youth. Together, we can do even more. Elevate the possibilities for a new generation of children by joining us in our 44-year tradition of giving. Get involved by visiting www.WizardsCare.com today.
